

Additional information for ICTAMI 2009

Registration: Official registration starts on September 3, between 8 and 10 o'clock, in the university campus. A map with the information about registration place is posted at the main gate of the university. You will find the same map in your conference bag. If you arrive in Alba Iulia on September 2, you can also register, at the university, between 12 and 20 o'clock.

Accommodation: All invited speakers and also co-organizers from abroad, will be hosted in the University Guesthouse which is in the same campus as the university and conference place. The keys and the numbers of your room can be found at the registration desk.

Other participants will be hosted in the Students Hostel no.1, which is 30 minutes walking distance away. The numbers of your rooms can be found at the registration desk and also, at the porter, in the student hostel, who has a list with your names.

Useful addresses: It is supposed that when you arrive in Alba Iulia you will search for one of these two addresses:

1. University of Alba Iulia –main entrance gate (Conference place, Registration desk, University guesthouse and restaurant)- Nicolae Iorga Street, no. 10-13 (the address in Romanian, for taxi drivers: "la universitate, la intrarea principala").

2. Students Hostel no.1 – Vasile Alecsandri Street, no. 106-108 (the address in Romanian, for taxi drivers: "caminul de studenti 1 (unu) -strada Vasile Alecsandri").

Conference bus between University and Student Hostel no.1: Conference bus will leave from the main gate of the University and from the Student hostel no.1, according to the following schedule:

From the Student Hostel, in the morning: From the main entrance gate of the University, in the evening:

on September 3, 4 and 5 - at 07:45
on September 6 – at 08:45

on September 3, 4 – at 22:00
on September 6 –at 20:30

Conference place (please see the map attached): The registration desk, Invited lectures room (Aula Magna- separate access from the ground floor or access from the first floor) and Mathematics sections rooms (A1, A2, A3 – second floor, Aula Magna) are all in the main building.

Internet access laboratory ("Metode numerice" Laboratory - ground floor) and coffee breaks hall are also in the main building for all participants, in the morning and only for Mathematics sections, in the afternoon.

The lecture rooms (LTI, API - ground floor), coffee breaks hall and Internet access for Informatics sections, in the afternoon, are in the Apor Palace building.

Social programme: In the second evening, on September 4, a violin concert will take place at 19:15, in Aula "Dumitru Stăniloae", third floor at the Faculty of Theology, a building outside the campus, 10 minutes walking distance away. If you want to go together with the group you will have to be at 19:00, at the main entrance gate of the university. You can reach the concert place through the park in front of the cathedral which can be seen from the university. The Faculty of Theology building is the first imposing building which arises on the opposite site of the park, slightly to the left.

On 5 September, at 9:00 in the morning, we will meet at the main entrance gate of the university, to take the bus for the conference trip to Apuseni Mountains. In the mountains it could be a little bit colder, hence make sure you have appropriate cloths, shoes and maybe an umbrella, with you.

Have a successful conference in Alba Iulia!
